Indiantown Invites the Public to Its First-Ever Halloween Special Event

No Tricks, Just Treats from 3 to 5 p.m. at Indiantown Village Hall, 15516 SW Osceola Street

Indiantown, FL – The Village of Indiantown will host its first-ever Halloween drive-by treat (no tricks) special event on Saturday, October 31, 2020, from 3 p.m. to 5 p.m. at the new Village Hall location, 15516 SW Osceola Street, Indiantown.

"We have set-up an area for vehicles and bicycles to drive through to receive special treats," said Mayor Janet Hernandez, Village of Indiantown. "The Village Hall location is centrally located, and we encourage the community to bring their children to this one-of-a-kind, free event."

The public is reminded that masks and social distancing are required.

The free event is co-sponsored by Indiantown Non-Profit Housing, U.S. Sugar and the Village of Indiantown.

Indiantown is a rural community in Florida's Treasure Coast. First established in the early 1900s, then incorporated on December 31, 2017, Florida's youngest municipality hosts a diverse population of roughly 6,000 residents. While it may be small, its resident engagement is exemplary and its potential for community building and new business opportunity is large. The Village mission seeks to enable economic prosperity and business while building pride and cohesion through hands-on self-governance. www.indiantownfl.gov
